

Greece was from 21 April 1967 <sup>and</sup> under the dictatorship government, the war finished 17 November 1973, 83 children died and one child 5 years old.

On the 17th of November every year all the Greeks but especially the students celebrate the students' revolt against the colonels' junta, having celebration at schools and a march that starts at the Athens Technical University and ends in the American Embassy, in remembrance of the 17th November 1973.